Sophie, you look tired today, is everything ok?

No, I am fine! Just have too many tests this week!

I see! And how are you doing with that?

Pretty good I guess! Just did not sleep well!

Feel free to go and rest if you need. You can do the work when you feel better, OK?

Thanks, Señora!

As Porter (2000) states, power-based approaches destroy trust between teachers and students and so students withdraw from learning as soon as they can (p. 123).
