

SOCIAL CONSTRUCTIVISM

Chris, so this is how you do it, right?

Effect of other's arguments and point of views in learning

No, look! You have to conjugate by taking the last 2 letters and adding these endings!

Ahh! Got it, mate!
Thanks!

Chrenka (2001) states that learning is an active process that is student-centered... learners select and transform information, construct hypothesis, and make decisions (p.694).
